Jon McNaught Joins LeftField as Senior Project Manager LeftField's Growth Continues

Boston, July 10, 2023: LeftField, an Owner's Project Management firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Jon McNaught as Senior Project Manager.

In this role, Jon is responsible for managing the planning, design, and construction of lab projects on behalf of owners and developers. Prior to joining LeftField, Jon managed a wide range of R&D and cGMP manufacturing projects in the Life Science sector, as well as numerous Higher Education construction projects from ground up core and shell projects to interior fit-outs. His past success with highly technical projects, coupled with his strong communication skills, and ability to identify and mitigate project risks makes Jon a great addition to our Life Science team.

"I had the benefit of working with Jon prior to him joining LeftField so I was well aware of his strengths. For the past year and a half Jon has been supporting one of our premier life science clients in the planning, design, construction, and now relocation of 5 of their tenants to a newly repositioned 400,000 sf space in Cambridge. In addition, Jon supported Massachusetts Biomedical initiatives on their 8,000 sf expansion in Worcester. We're thrilled to have Jon on our team and I'm pleased to be working with him again." – Aaron Hall, Executive Director of Science and Technology at LeftField

When Jon isn't working you can find him on the golf course, watching the Bruins or spending time with his wife and daughter.
